

WHY A BOX OF NUNNALLY'S CANDIES'S?

First, because the outside of the package has a stylish, attractive appearance. It is well wrapped, tied with suitable ribbon, and makes a good impression at first glance.

Second, because upon opening the box the idea of daintiness is forced upon you by the neat appearance of the candy. You are at once impressed that only expert packers could put up candy with such skill, and they alone could give it the beauty of arrangement that is especially noticeable in a box of Nunnally's candy.

And third, because the eating of these delicate confections proves them to be most delicious and wholesome, and unsurpassed in nutritive excellence.

Thus, with daintiness, wholesomeness, deliciousness and sweet purity, a box of Nunnally's confections proves itself par excellence.

Whiskey Seizure.

Sheriff Hood has been giving a little of his time the past week to the blind tiger business and the result is that there are now in the sheriff's office several gallons of whiskey. He got at the express office a five gallon keg consigned to J. H. Gladney, a five gallon keg to F. Harrison and a three gallon jug to W. L. Orr. In addition to these seizures Constable Boland, who has been working in this section for the past few days, got a five gallon keg, at Rockton, consigned to Jake Hull and at the express office here a two gallon jug to Phillips at the Fairfield Cotton Mills.

The above seizures are a fine beginning of Sheriff Hood's determination to break up the blind tiger business. He says he is keeping his eyes open and that he is going to make it hot for all offenders.

Winnsboro for Millinery.

By reference to our advertise ment columns it will be seen that there are two millinery openings in winnsboro this week. Winnsboro has all the while enjoyed a very enviable reputation for its display of millinery and there is perhaps no other respect in which there is a larger proportionate business done here than in this supplying the demands for up-to-date stylish millinery at reasonable prices. It is a matter of very common comment on the part of the ladies of nearby towns that they always find it to their interest to come to Winnsboro for their millinery. It is noticeable that mail orders for millinery come in from all parts of the county and in a good many instances from the cities both on the part of ladies who formerly lived here and their friends who have found out through them that Winnsboro is strictly in it when it comes to millinery.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is De Witt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe. Sold by all druggists.

Some Fine Horses.

By an oversight in the make-up of the paper last week the advertisement of D. A. Crawford was left out. Special attention is called to his advertisement appearing to-day. Mr. Crawford has just received within the past few days another carload of mules and horses. The mules are extra good ones and he has some especially nice horses. A pair of sorrel mares are just beauties. Mr. Crawford, since the opening of his new stable last fall, has sold quite a large quantity of stock and he says the secret of it is that he has the right kind of stock and the right kind of price. He has just recently put him up a new stable at Ridgeway, Mr. T. C. Dozier, being in charge of his business at that end of the line, and he has been having a business at the stable there also. If you are in need of any thing in the way of horse flesh at this time, be sure to give Mr. Crawford a call and you will be pretty likely to get what you are looking for.

Do Not Be Imposed Upon.
Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. McMaster Co.
